

BIOGRAPHY

JenliSisters

JENLISISTERS: TWO SISTERS, A HARPISIT AND VIOLINIST, REVITALIZE CELTIC MUSIC BY BLENDING IT WITH ELECTRO!

The JenliSisters: multiple facets of a Celtic exploration. In 2023, they revolutionized the Celtic world with their new album “Mystical Fusion”, succeeding in the extraordinary challenge of making audiences dance and travel to the sound of the electric harp, violin, and electro.

The JenliSisters, Héloïse the harpist and Mathilde the violinist, push the boundaries of their instruments by exploring different music styles and playing techniques. Each concert becomes a journey through space and time. They compose their own music, drawing inspiration from traditional, classical, and pop music, which they blend with electro sounds.

Through their familial complicity and the unique harmony of their instruments, they make each concert a moment rich in emotion. Together, they create an intimacy with the audience while delivering the scale of a large-scale show.

Since 2022, the JenliSisters have performed more than 200 times a year in various projects, including Celtic, classical, and electro music, as well as children's shows.

HELOÏSE DE JENLIS - Harpist, Composer

Graduated with a master's degree in harp from the Royal Conservatory of Brussels and the Conservatory of Milan, Héloïse is a winner of numerous competitions. A renowned harpist in classical, Celtic, and electro music, her YouTube video of Debussy's “Arabesques” has garnered over 7 million views.

MATHILDE DE JENLIS - Violinist, Composer, Producer

Graduated with a master's degree from the Royal Conservatory of Brussels in classical violin and a master's degree in Irish Traditional Music from the DIT Conservatory of Dublin, Mathilde has developed a unique violin playing style that transcends musical genres.